

do justice • love tenderly • walk humbly with God Micah 6:8

June 2, 2025

We begin all of our prayer in the presence of our loving Creator; because we are all created in the very image and likeness of God!

As a Christian community, we know this:

Each of us has a treasure to share

Daily reflection:

(1 John 3:17-18)

“If someone who has worldly means sees a brother or sister in need and refuses them compassion, how can the love of God remain in him?

Children, let us love not in word or speech but in deed and truth.”

We know that God loves us. We know this because God shares all of Creation with us. God gives us so many good and wonderful things. The best way to show that we love God is for us to be like God – to share things with others!

Daily call to action:

When we share with others, we don't lose what we have; when we share, we gain even more than what we started with. Our hearts are opened. We gain love. Our own experience teaches us over and over that generosity inspires more generosity. Selfishness and rigidity inspire more selfishness and rigidity. Let's try to catch ourselves when we see that we are being selfish. Let's choose generosity.

Intercessions/ our prayer for our world:

For Pope Leo and all Church leaders, that they will continue to share the Good News of God's love with the whole world.

That the people and leaders in the United States will always share our ideas and resources with countries that need assistance.

That the people of our city will share their time, their talent, and their treasure with each other, especially those impacted by the recent tornado, in order to build a community of love and peace.

For ourselves, that we will discover our own treasures and learn to share them and to use them to help others.

Blessing: (the prayer of Aaron over the people of God: Num. 6:23b-26)

May the Lord bless you and keep you!

May the Lord let his face shine upon you, and be gracious to you!

May the Lord look upon you kindly and give you peace!

And we say together with all of the people of God:

Amen.
